AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE ABOUT CHRISTMAS CARDS

We delight in sending seasonal greetings to each other at Christmas, and we are in no way discouraging this BUT there will be no card table this year, for obvious reasons. Please make sure that you personally deal with any cards that you bring to church or ask others to help in delivery. OR, you may prefer to write a single card to the fellowship. Any donations made in lieu of sending cards will go to the work of Birmingham City Mission. Please put these, clearly labelled, in the box at the back. Thank you.

We support God's work in many ways, as a church & as individuals—may we continue to pray for:

THE OPEN AIR MISSION - Pray especially for Andy Little, Sam Baxter (an associate evangelist with OAM) and Paul Linnell. Most missionaries are back preaching in the open air.

SPENCER CONTACT - Praise God for His continued provision. Pray for opportunities for the delivery staff to witness appropriately.

ARAB WORLD MINISTRIES - the Burridges and their ministry in the Middle East. For the family, separated at this time.

THE MANDRITSARA PROJECT, MADAGASCAR - Please continue to pray for weary medical staff and for those longing to join them but unable at this time to travel. And for the effects that the threat of Covid-19 can cause.

ANDREW & VIVIENNE BIRCH, EUROPEAN MISSION FELLOWSHIP -

They are now established in their Shepshed home, and are being wonderfully supported by Shepshed Word of Life Church. Andrew recently explained in detail the vision he has of his pastoral ministry with European Mission Fellowship in a webinar. Those interested in his work and that of EMF can go to their website & simply click on 'webinars' - Andrew's, on 12th October, is listed there & is easily accessible.

From our pastor, Paul Milner "It has been a busy week with our first session on sharing our faith one-to-one & our first 'Understanding Corona Virus' talk & discussion. In all the ever changing situations we seem to face these days, added to the busyness of life, this month's devotional was nearly forgotten! This month, Spurgeon reminds us of the benefits of taking time to remember & recount the Lord's blessings to us."

'Bless the Lord, O my soul & forget not all His benefits.' Psalm 102: 2

It is a delightful & profitable occupation to mark the hand of God in the lives of ancient saints, & to observe His goodness in delivering them, His mercy in pardoning them, & His faithfulness in keeping His covenant with them.

But would it not be even more interesting & profitable for us to remark the hand of God in our own lives? Ought we not to look upon our history as being at least as full of God, as full of His goodness & of His truth, as much a proof of His faithfulness & veracity, as the lives of any of the saints who have gone before?

We do our Lord an in justice when we suppose that He wrought all His mighty acts, & showed Himself strong for those in the early times, but does not perform wonders or lay bare His arm for the saints who are now upon the earth.

Let us review our own lives. Surely in these we may discover some happy incidents, refreshing to ourselves & glorifying to our God.

Have you had no deliverances? Have you passed through no rivers, supported by the divine presence? Have you walked through no fires unharmed? Have you had no manifestations? Have you had no choice favours? The God who gave Solomon the desires of his heart, has He never listened to you & answered your requests?

That God of lavish bounty of whom David sang. " Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things," has He never satiated you with fatness? Have you never been made to lie down in green pastures? Have you never been led by the still waters?

Surely the goodness of God has been the same to us as to the saints of old. Let us, then, weave His mercies into a song. Let us take the pure gold of thankfulness, & the jewels of praise & make them into another crown for the head of Jesus. Let our souls give forth music as sweet & as exhilarating as came from David's harp, while we praise the Lord whose mercy endures forever.
